Details: On March 26, 2013, at 1250 hours the Visalia Police Department ABC Compliance Unit conducted an undercover operation at the Triple N Market at 909 N. Court St. Officers had received information that the business was operating an electronic slot machine, which was paying out U.S. currency. An undercover officer entered the store and played the electronic slot machine. Once receiving a cash payout assisting police units responded and detained the listed suspects, who were the owners of the business. Both suspects were arrested and released with a citation. The operation was conducted as part of the department's grant from the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.
