Details: As part of a month long investigation into the sales of narcotics at Recreation Park, an undercover officer from the Visalia Police Department made arrangements with the above suspect to purchase an amount of marijuana. Upon delivery of the marijuana, the suspect was taken into custody for possession for sales. Upon a search of the suspect's residence, officers located additional marijuana for a total weight of 3/4 of a pound of processed marijuana and a digital scale. Further investigation revealed that the juvenile suspect possessed a physician's medical marijuana recommendation obtained locally. The juvenile suspect was later transported and booked into juvenile hall for possession of marijuana for sales due to the fact that sales of marijuana is illegal even if a medical marijuana recommendation exists.
