Prostitution Arrest(s) at Visalia Massage Parlors

March 29, 2012

The Visalia Police Department conducted undercover massage parlor investigations after receiving citizen complaints of prostitution occurring at the listed locations. During the operation an undercover officer from the Visalia Police Department was solicited for sex while receiving massages. Both listed suspects were booked into the Tulare County Bob Wiley Detention Facility under charges for solicitation of prostitution.

Location #1

2225 E. Mineral King – Rejuvenation Spa

Suspect: Shu Rong Jin, 54 years of age

Location #2

814 W. Oak – Evergreen Massage

Suspect: Xiuying Yang, 61 years of age

City of Visalia Code Enforcement also responded to the locations to address business code violations including employees residing at the businesses. The Visalia Police Department will be conducting similar undercover investigations in the future to address complaints regarding prostitution acts being conducted out of massage parlor establishments.
