Details: Violent Crimes detectives investigated a series of assaults that had occurred in the 200 block of E. Dove. These assaults began in July 2019 through November 2019. The assaults were posted by the suspects on YouTube. In the videos, it appears as if the suspects planted a bicycle in the front yard of their residence, unsecured, and waited for someone to try and steal the bicycle. Once someone tried to steal the bike, the suspects would rush from the house and assault the individual with a baseball bat. The victims in the cases received various non-life threatening injuries. At this point, four individuals have been identified as having been assaulted by the suspects. Both suspects were located today and booked for Assault with a Deadly Weapon and Conspiracy charges. Anyone with any further information in regards to these assaults is urged to contact Det. James Cummings at (559) 713-4722.
