Details: On October 19, 2020 at 1911 hours, officers were dispatched to the area of Ferguson and Ben Maddox for a traffic collision. Upon arrival, officers located two parked vehicles with moderate damage. An off duty Porterville Police Department Corporal advised he observed the suspect vehicle travel to a residence in the nearby area. Officers responded to the residence and determined that a secondary collision had occurred at that location. The driver, Troy Cleffman, was located hiding behind a fence at the residence. Cleffman was evaluated and arrested for driving under the influence. The passenger was arrested for public intoxication and resisting arrest.
