HAPPENING OVERNIGHT: Felon Arrested After Pursuit and Ammo Discovery in Visalia

Just after 9:30 p.m. last night, a Visalia PD officer responded to reports of a fight in a vehicle last seen heading north from the 1900 block of South Lovers Lane. The officer located a vehicle matching the description at the 7-11 on Lovers Lane and attempted to pull it over. The driver, 40-year-old Jesse Hernandez, failed to stop, leading to a pursuit that ended in the 1100 block of North Manzanita Street.

During a search of Hernandez and the vehicle, officers discovered ammunition and a loaded magazine. As a convicted felon, Hernandez is prohibited from possessing ammunition.

Hernandez was arrested on charges of illegal possession of ammunition, evading officers, and driving with a suspended license. He was taken to the Tulare County Adult Pre-Trial Facility.
