HAPPENING OVERNIGHT: Early Morning Traffic Stop Leads to Arrest of Wanted Visalia Man

Just after 1:00 a.m., Visalia police officers attempted a traffic stop on a grey Kia on Court Street and Murray Avenue for suspected DUI and expired registration. The driver failed to stop, leading officers into the county.

CHP was requested to assist, and a Visalia officer deployed spike strips near Road 132 and Avenue 368, successfully disabling the vehicle. CHP then used a PIT maneuver to bring the car to a stop.

The driver, 20-year-old Aldo Garcia, was taken into custody. He had an outstanding Ramey warrant from the Tulare County Sheriff's Office for burglary (459 PC), a no-bail warrant for assault with a deadly weapon (245 PC), and now faces additional charges including drug possession (11377 HS), DUI (23152(a) VC), felony evading (2800.2 VC), and reckless driving (23103 VC).
