UPDATE

One Dead After Overnight Shooting

At approximately 1:43 a.m., Visalia Police Department officers responded to reports of a shooting at Sebby's, located near Main Street and Garden Street.

When officers arrived, they found multiple people had been shot following a fight that broke out inside the establishment. Three individuals were transported to Kaweah Health for their injuries.

Sadly, one of the victims has died from their injuries. The incident is now being investigated as a homicide.

The Visalia Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit has responded and taken over the investigation. Streets are back open.

Sebby's Lounge has been issued a Cease and Desist Order due to its failure to comply with City Ordinances and other applicable regulations. The establishment has been found to be in violation of multiple requirements and is, as a result, directed to immediately cease all business operations.

This is an ongoing investigation. Anyone with information is urged to contact the Visalia Police Department at (559) 734-8117.
