Redwood High School Vandalism Leads to Arrest of Three Juveniles

On September 28, 2025, at approximately 2:38 a.m., Visalia Police Officers received a report of vandalism at Redwood High School. Officers discovered significant damage to a fence and a golf cart, with estimated damages totaling approximately $7,500.

The Visalia Police Department's Youth Services Unit took over the investigation. Through their investigation, they identified three suspects as students from another high school - ages 17, 16, and 15. This morning, the suspects were contacted and taken into custody without incident.
